Endergo Test Here After Get-

The Rock Island district exemption board will know on Monday whether or not action will be necessary against registrants who falled to report for examination before the bady The board today bundled a number who were ordered to report earlier in the week. There has been few, howver, who have failed to report. The members of the hourd figured this morning that by tonight practically all of those who had not shown up at the time ordered, would present themselves for examination.

Monday the list will be checked over and slackers, if there are any, will very likely be arrested. Outside Men Examined.

Registrants from other cities pave been examined by the local board. Many of those who registered alsewhere secured permission from the exemption board in the district in which they lived at that time to be examined here.
